The Renville County Back-the-Pack Program sponsored in part by Olivia Area Kiwanis, United Way, Farmward, CRC, Olivia Masons, area Churches and others who work with school staff to provide free meals to families who find it difficult to provided meals for their children on weekends. Parents outside of this need are asked to forgo this service.

Please be aware that meals may contain allergens. It is the parent/guardian's responsibility to check the meals for allergens. In order to do this, children are to only open meals at home. Eating food on bus or giving food to others is not only dangerous, but sends the impression your child does not need the meals.

Children must be present on the day the meals are delivered and are to pick up their own meals.

After your consent form is received, your child's name will be added to the list of students registered for the program. If the program has sufficient funds, s/he will begin receiving a supply of child-friendly food at the end of each school week.

If you have questions, contact Betsy Hennen at (320)523-5717.

(This program is not associated with the free/reduced lunch program provided by BOLD,RCW, GFW, BLHS, CM Public Schools.)
